Ho acquisito l'abilitazione scientifica nazionale come Professore Associato di Anestesia e Terapia Intensiva nel marzo 2017. Dal 2002 al 2009 ho fatto parte del personale sub-specialistico di Terapia Cardiotoracica e Anestesia, che ha fornito servizi clinici per un'ampia gamma di chirurgia cardiotoracica, trapianto cardiaco e gestione dei dispositivi di assistenza meccanica. Dal 2009 a novembre 2021, il mio lavoro clinico si è concentrato sulla terapia intensiva generale e l'anestesia per il trapianto di organi o altri interventi chirurgici del fegato, dei reni e del pancreas presso l'Università degli studi di Udine, in Italia. Ho lavorato come professore associato presso l'Università di Udine dal 1° ottobre 2019 al 30 novembre 2021. Dal 1° dicembre 2021 lavoro presso l'Università di Chieti-Pescara come Professore Associato di Anestesia e Terapia Intensiva e svolgo il mio lavoro in Anestesia e Terapia Intensiva presso la SS. Ospedale Annunziata, Chieti. Dal 2016 sono Direttore del Corso di Ecografia Polmonare e Cardiaca organizzato annualmente e patrocinato dalla Società Italiana di Anestesia e Terapia Intensiva (SIAARTI).
