Part VII – Research Activities

Keywords	Brief Description
Public Law	My research addresses, on the one hand, the theoretical and methodological foundations of administrative law and public law more generally, including in comparative perspective, with particular attention to the form, justification, and substance of public decision-making. On the other hand, it engages with the analysis of decision-making processes and public policies, especially in the fields of social policy and environmental protection and is characterised by a sustained openness to interdisciplinary approaches within the social sciences.
